- Christchurch is a town that is in Dorset on the south coast of England.

- Christchurch is surrounded by beautiful beaches and the New Forest. Christchurch Priory is the longest parish church in the UK - seen from its extensive churchyard. It was founded in the seventh century at the confluence of the rivers Avon and Stour which flow into Christchurch harbour. Christchurch was the name of Tisbury but became known as Christchurch following the construction of the Priory in 1094.

Bournemouth International Airport which handles approximately 800,000 passengers a year, was located within the borough boundary at Bournemouth. Christchurch is a popular place to live and has a current population of around 50,000.
