

Present Tense

They are watching the boy playing.

I am washing my clothes.

We are sailing a boat.

I am painting a picture.

He is cooking my tea.

I am scratching my head.

I am washing my hands.

We are playing at playtime.

Past Tense

They watched the boy playing.

I washed my clothes.

We sailed a boat.

I painted a picture.

He cooked my tea.

I scratched my head.

I washed my hands.

We played at playtime.

1) Yesterday we sailed a long way in our boat. I washed my clothes because they were all wet.

2) Today we will play in the playground. We will wash our hands after going to the toilet.

3) I washed TV all last night. Then I painted a picture.

4) Tomorrow you need to give the cat a good scratch. He will love it!