

The Magic Bubbles

One day, lived a boy who was very naughty, his name was Jack. He was naughty because he ate bubble-gum at school even though it was against the rules. In class he is very naughty because he is always daydreaming and not ever paying attention to his teacher Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson is a friendly and caring teacher for example when someone was struggling, he will go over to help them with their learning. The class had a hamster called Hugo. Jack was chewing bubble-gum as always during the day. Suddenly Jack blew an enormous bubble and Mr. Wilson shouted at Jack and then Jack took a deep breath and somehow, he got sucked into the bubble!

When Jack was in the bubble everything looked evil the paintings, desks, walls, the hamster, children and the teacher. Jack was terrified when he saw everything look evil. He wanted to get out of the bubble, but he could not. Then he rolled into the corridor and then he rolled down the corridor and he ended up at the year 6's. The year 6's were all laughing at Jack but Jack was very sad. Finally, he was asleep and something magical happened to him. He was sleeping at his house and he promised never to chew bubble-gum again and the bubble got popped.

THE END